BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Solicits sanction (1) for the extension of the term of the Ho. Qr. Police Training School to one year (2) for the conversion of the Survey, Drawing & Photography Teacher into a permanent Inspector and (3) for building a hostel for the School.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

1 The course of instruction in the Ho. Qr. Police Training School extends over a period of 8 months (in the year). The I.G. states that this is insufficient and that therefore the term should be extended to one year. The additional cost involved in this proposal is stated to be Rs 960 (pay of substitutes) + Rs 400 (house rent to persons undergoing training) or Rs 1360

2. The I. G. renews his proposal to convert the Survey Drawing & Photography Teacher into an Inspector of the last grade. If this be sanctioned the extension of the term involves no extra expenditure on this account. But it has already been decided after full consideration of the question that it is inexpedient to convert the stipendiary service to permanent govt. service.

[N.B. The I. G. seems to have forgotten the fact that the ambulance lecturer may demand more than what he is now paid if the term be extended]

3. The I. G. requests that steps may be taken for the erection of a Hostel in connection with the Hd. Qr. School. Provision for a thing will have to be made in the next year's budget if the I. G.'s proposals are sanctioned. Submd. for orders.

The total annual cost would be 480 Rs a year as against 500 Rs per term of 8 months now incurred. If the person is kept on as a temporary employee throughout the whole year his remuneration would amount to 12 × 50 + 100 Rs or 700 Rs, as against this the cost of his made a permanent employee would be 480 Rs. ~~It~~ This saving is no doubt a point in favour of the proposal, but it has first to be made sure whether a remuneration of more than 40 Rs pm would not be asked for if the man is made permanent. If this is so, no doubt there would be a certain additional contingent expenditure for pensions but that is not likely to be much. If the course is extended to a year there is much to recommend the proposal & the case is somewhat different than when the recommendation was made in Oct last to make the man a permanent employee keeping the course at only 8 months.

(3). A hostel for the police school would be useful & also desirable but it is a work that may cost a fairly large sum of money - say about 10 to 20 thousand rupees to provide accommodation for 40 to 50 students and it is doubtful if with large expenditure in other directions in the next year it would be possible to find funds for this work. This proposal may therefore lie over till 1909-1910 & maybe brought up for consideration in Jan'y 1909.

OPINION.

26 On careful consideration of the matter the Council does not think it necessary to extend the period of instruction in the Training School from 8 months to one year. The provision of a hostel for men coming from the mofussil is not a matter of pressing necessity and may lie over for the present.

27 The appointment of the instructor in Survey, Drawing and Photography may be made permanent on a pay of Rs.40 per mensem.

28 Submitted to His Highness.

The Inspector General of Police has made the following recommendations in regard to the Police Training School at Bangalore:-

(1) to extend the period of instruction from 8 months to one year at an additional cost of Rs.1,360 per annum;

(2) to provide a hostel for the students and accommodation for the teaching staff;

and (3) to convert the present temporary teacher in surveying, drawing and photography into a permanent Inspector on Rs.40 per mensem.

29 These proposals having been considered in the Council, the Council is of opinion, on careful consideration, that it is not necessary to extend the period of instruction from 8 months to one year, (2) that the provision of a hostel is not a matter of pressing necessity and may lie over for the present and (3) that the appointment of the instructor in survey, drawing and photography may be made permanent on Rs.40 per mensem.

30 These proposals may be sanctioned.

32 The increase of expenditure involved in extending the period of training is so small and the proper training of the police is a matter of such great and increasing importance that I consider that the I.G's proposal should be accepted and the period extended to one year.

33 The proposal to make the Instructor's appointment permanent is approved.

34 The provision of a hostel appears to me a matter of great importance and I hope that an effort will be made to provide the necessary funds as soon as possible. Plans and estimates should be prepared at any rate.

Para.24 of the Police Administration Report for the year 1906-07 and para 4 of the Review of Government thereon under the head 'Education'.

The Provincial Police Training School at Bangalore was opened in the year 1892 when Mr. Madhava Rao was Inspector General of Police. It has now become a permanent institution, and has fully justified its existence by training and sending out yearly a number of students - 40 to 50 on an average - ~~fairly~~ well instructed in ordinary Police matters.

2. The School is divided into 3 classes :-

(1) Inspectors ... ... English.
(2) Station House Officers .. --Do--
(3) ------Do------- Kannada, with teachers as noted in the margin. The subjects taught are :-

2 Inspectors to teach Law and Procedure.
1 Pandit

are :-

(1) Law including all Local and Special laws.

(2) Police Procedure.

(3) Survey and Drawing.

(4) Drill and shooting.

(5) Ambulance.

(6) Photography.

(7) Medical Jurisprudence.

(8) Gymnastics.

(9) Attending Courts and making precis of evidence.

(10) Instruction regarding Criminal Gangs and their habits.

(11) The taking of Finger Impressions.

(12) Behaviour towards the public.

(13) Memory drawing.

(14) Cycling, to which should be added, if possible, "Equitation".

3. The course of instruction has been limited to a period of 8 months in the year; which is not long enough to allow of students going properly through the course. I would very strongly urge on Government the necessity of prolonging the term of instruction to at least the full year; which is the period prescribed in all Police Training Schools in British India.

4. The present proposal does not involve any change either in the strength, or cost of the staff of instructors; though for reasons already given in my letter No. 1241/138 dated 21st August 1907 (copy enclosed for ready reference) I would reiterate my proposal to convert the temporary teacher in Surveying, Drawing and photography into a permanent Inspector on Rs 40/- per mensem. This will give us 3 full-time Inspr's for 3 important branches of instruction - on Rs 50/- per month for 8 months with a bonus of Rs 100/-

5. I must however approach Government for enhanced funds towards meeting the charges which may be incurred for the entertainment of substitutes in place of men undergoing instruction.

The present practice is to entertain a 2nd grade Jamedar on ₹ 20/- in the place of an Inspector, or Jamedar and grant an allowance of ₹ 2/- to a 1st class constable put in charge of the duties of a Duffedar, no substitutes being entertained in the place of constables. A sum of ₹ 1920/- is provided on this account in the annual budget. This should be increased by ₹ 960/- for the extra 4 months.

6. Again as we have no lines in which to accommodate the students, a house rent of ₹ 2/- per month is paid to men coming to Bangalore from the mofussil; and this is provided for in the Police Budget under head "House-rents, XXII. C. Police. 3-District Police." This grant will also have to be increased by ₹ 400/- taking the average number of students to be 50. Thus the net financial result of my proposal will be an increase of ₹ 113-5-4 per mensem or ₹ 1360/- per annum. The probability of using the whole of this additional amount, in any one year is improbable; for out of the whole Force there are only 27 Inspectors and 38 Jamedars who have not passed any examinations; and only 2 of the former and 8 of the latter are eligible for training; the others being too old or otherwise incapable of gaining anything by a course of instruction. The remaining number of Jamedars have passed the Inspector's or Station House Officer's tests in English or Kanarese; but among these only 12 have qualified themselves for the Inspector's class by passing the Station House Officer's test in English. It may therefore be reckoned that the chances of a large amount being spent towards the pay of substitutes, will not continue for more than 2 or 3 years to come, as care will be taken that all the vacancies in the grade of Jamedars will in future be filled by passed candidates.

7. The only other subject of importance is, the providing of accommodation for the men coming from the mofussil for instruction. As Government have realized the urgent necessity for this by calling for a separate report, I need not dilate further upon the uses of a Hostel for the Training School at Bangalore. The Hostel should include in addition to accommodation for pupils, residences for the teaching staff ~~of teachers~~ together with a mess-house. I enclose an extract from the Appendix to the Indian Police Commission Report, on "Buildings for the Police Training Schools," to show what elaborate arrangements are recommended in British India.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J.C. Cam

Inspector General of Police.

NO: 1241/138. Dated 21st August 1907.

From

F. E. C. Carr Esquire,

Inspector General of Police in Mysore.

To

The Secretary to the Government of

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

General and Revenue Departments.

Sir;

Reference :-

Government Proceedings No. 1098-99/J dated 3rd December 1903 authorizing me to distribute the total amount sanctioned on account of the Survey and Photography Instructors of the Head Quarter Police Training School to one or more men; and Government Proceedings No. J 1736-7/Police 112-2 dated 3rd January 1905 extending the sanction to the distribution of the said amount to the Ambulance lecturer.

Adverting to the above, I have the honour to state that the present Survey and Drawing master is paid Rs 50/- per mensem for a period of 8 months and an allowance of Rs 100/- for teaching photography making a total of Rs 500/- in the year. As the term is fixed at 8 months and the nature of the appointment of the Survey and Drawing teacher is necessarily precarious and temporary leaving him whoever he may be, out of employ for a third of the year. This stipendiary service does not naturally create as much interest in the work as salaried Government service would.

I would therefore suggest to make the appointment permanent by ranking the teacher with Inspectors of the last grade on Rs 40/- per mensem and call him as Inspector of Survey, Drawing and Photography. His pay for the whole year will be Rs 480/- result-resulting in a small saving of Rs.20/- per annum. Apart from this nominal saving another decided advantage is that the change will result in a permanent and qualified Inspector who may at a moment's notice be ordered to take photos of K.D.s, suspicious strangers and criminal gangs both at Head Quarters and out in the Districts and make maps and plans whenever necessary.

I would therefore request that you will be so good as to move the Government to sanction the above proposal.

I have &c.,

PROVINCIAL TRAINING SCHOOLS.

Buildings .- The buildings should include, in addition to accommodation for the pupils, residences for the Principal and the members of the staff. Whereever it is possible to do so there should be a mess house, with residential quarters, for the Probationary Assistant Superintendents. The Provincial School will usually be combined with one of the Central Schools for constables, but it is essential that separate accommodation be provided for the pupils of the two institutions both as regards quarters, class-rooms, recreation rooms and hospitals.

It may therefore be reckoned that the chances of a large amount being spent towards the pay of substitutes, will not continue for more than 2 or 3 years to come, as care will be taken that all the vacancies in the grade of Jamadars will in future be filled by passed candidates.

Police, dated 21st August 1908.

7. The only other subject of importance is the providing of accommodation for the men coming from the mofussil for instruction. As Government have realized the urgent necessity for this by calling for a separate report, I need not dilate further upon the uses of a hostel for the Training School at Bangalore. The hostel should include in addition to accommodation for pupils, residences for the teaching staff together with a mess-house. I enclose an extract from the Appendix to the Indian Police Commission Report, on "Buildings for Police Training Schools," to show what elaborate arrangements are recommended in British India."

No. J. 568-70—POLICE 165-07-2, DATED BANGALORE, 21st AUGUST 1908.

ORDER THEREON.—Government are pleased to accord their sanction to the proposal of the Inspector-General of Police to extend the term of instruction in the Police Training School to one year. They also sanction the proposal to make permanent the appointment of the present temporary instructor in Survey, Drawing and Photography on Rs. 40. The proposals involve an additional cost of Rs. 1,360 per annum and the necessary provision has been made in the budget for the year 1908-09.

2. The Inspector-General of Police is requested to submit for the approval of Government, plans and estimates for the construction of a hostel for the students and proper quarters for the teaching staff, in consultation with the Chief Engineer of Mysore.
